PETITION TO U.S. TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

RIGHT TO ASSOCIATE

Incidence of Repression Has Not Abated
Arrest and detention of peasant leader Jaime Tadeo 7

Data and Developments: 1991
Killing of trade unionists by government and paramilitary forces
The Rise of the 'SCAAs'
Calls for dismantling of paramilitary units 15

Data and Developments: 1992

Data and Developments: 1993
Re-investigation of Olalia murder

Labor Code Provisions that Restrain Right To Associate 21

RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY

Provisions of Labor Code Found by ILO to be Unacceptable 25
Provision imposing 'excessive' penalties on illegal strikers 25
Provision on cancellation of union registration 27
Provision on direct election of union officers 29

Rules Implementing Labor Code Also Found Unacceptable
Rule requiring that union officers be employees of employer 31
Rule requiring federations to organize 'direct members' into locals 31

Government Directives Also Found Unacceptable
Policy Instruction No. 20 32
Presidential Proclamation No. 50 34

Provision Restricting Strikes in 'National Interest' Cases 36
Provision on Subcontracting: Subterfuge to Avoid Unionism
- Types of subcontracting
  - 'Labor-Only' subcontracting
- Job contracting
- Subcontracting as an anti-union tool

Other Code Provisions that Restrain Right to Organize
- Ban on strikes by non-registered unions
- Allowing employees to be considered union members on first day of work

Reprisals for Exercise of Right to Organize and Bargain Collectively
- Killing of trade unionists
- Arrests and imprisonment
- Other acts of violence
  - 'Violence provoked by unions'
- Limited exercise of worker rights in export processing zones
- The ineffectiveness of adjudication and mediation mechanisms

Government Employees Still Have No Right To Strike

CHILD LABOR

Child Population in the Philippines

Extent of Child Labor

Areas of Work
- Child prostitution

Other Instances of Exploitation of Child Workers

Abuse of Child Workers in Agriculture
- Child labor in the Cordillera region
- Children in 'muro ami' fishing operation

Abuse of Child Workers in Industry
- Raids of factories to rescue indentured child workers
- Extent of indenture and abuse of factory child workers
- Child workers in cottage and other industries
- Children in garment industry

Page ii
APPENDIX

CONCLUSION

Breaches of OSH standards not strikeable offence
Poor enforcement of OSH standards
Work-related illnesses
Worker deaths
Workplace accidents
Accidents and occupational illnesses
High rate of violation of OSH standards

WORKING CONDITIONS: OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH

Employee circumvention of wage laws
Corrupt inspectors
Sobering inadequate enforcement mechanisms
Rampant violation of wage laws

Labor sector's response to cheap labor policy
Government's cheap labor policy
Philippine workers' struggle for decent wage
Minimum wage below poverty level

WORKING CONDITIONS: MIGRANTS

Forced labor as penalty for 'illegal' strikers
Forced labor exists in various parts of the country
Forced labor