The Allegheny-Fayette Central Labor Council, AFL-CIO, and The LABOR School at Penn State will host a series of labor education workshops designed to better equip labor union stewards, labor activists, and leaders to meet the challenges facing today's labor movement.

The curriculum consists of four comprehensive non-credit courses designed to develop critical thinking skills and increase capacity for building power. The courses encourage participation and networking with other activists.

2020 Academy Schedule

1. Our Current Labor Landscape: Lessons for Twenty-First Century Unions

(April 21, 28, and May 5)

2. Building Power: Mobilizing Members

(May 12, 19, 26)

3. Building Power: Effective Communications

(September 15, 22, 29)

4. Bridging Divisions: Building a Stronger Labor Movement

(November 10, 17, 24)

"The techniques and tools from this course will help me be a better steward to represent my members."

-Jesse Lewis, IBEW 29

"Every union member should take this class. It gave me a deeper understanding of the labor movement. Unions have a lot more in common than we think."

-Katrina Rectenwald,
SEIU Healthcare PA

"I will be working to increase member engagement in my union after attending this course."

-Stacia Young, UFCW 1776KS
