Dear Mr. Shark:

I enclose the arguments of the AFL-CIO with regard to a number of countries whose violations of worker rights and labor standards should be considered in the annual review of benefits granted under the Generalized System of Preferences.

008-CP-87

In our view any fair reading of the worker rights provisions of Title V of the Trade and Tariff Act of 1984 would require that Chile, Indonesia, Republic of Korea, Paraguay, Singapore, Suriname, Taiwan, Thailand, and Turkey be denied GSP benefits. Other countries are serious labor rights violators whose practices need review, but, because of changes in government or other special circumstances, require special consideration. These countries — Guatemala, Haiti, the Central African Republic, and Zambia — should be issued a warning that GSP benefits could well cease unless improvements are made.

The AFL-CIO recognizes the reluctance of your office to consider cases involving countries that have so recently been examined. Nonetheless, we feel that the evidence and arguments herein presented warrant your review of all cases, both old and new.

The AFL-CIO will cooperate with you fully during the course of the next review. I strongly urge you to include all the enclosed cases in its scope.

Sincerely,

Form Colun
